

Golden years festival

THE Westport Plaza and Castlecourt Hotel Resort has received an overwhelming response to the inaugural golden years festival, which runs from Sunday to Thursday, October 4 to 8, with all rooms completely booked.

Over 55s are set to enjoy a fun packed five days sampling all the great activities the resort offers. Guests will also can enjoy painting classes, Bad Bob's cookery demonstrations, table quizzes, aqua aerobics, bingo, nutritional talks, indoor bowls classes, guided tours of Westport; day trips, bridge classes, a fun talent show – 'The Gold-Factor', historical talks, ballroom dancing classes, live entertainment and a gala dinner.

Said Ciara Joyce, marketing manager, Westport Plaza and Castlecourt Hotel Resort: "We offer lots of golden years packages and have built up a very loyal client base for these over the past few years, so the festival seemed like a natural progression.

"We truly have been overwhelmed by the fantastic response it has gotten, so much so we are already preparing to launch the February 2010 festival."
